Introduction

This booklet is the companion document to the OneNote 2016 workshop. OneNote is an application that will let you take notes and store them in a digital notebook. This booklet will show users how to navigate the interface, create, format, edit, insert content, organize notebooks, and easily find content.

Learning Objectives

After completing the instructions in this booklet, you will be able to:

- Identify the components of the OneNote 2016 interface
- Create a new notebook, sections, and pages
- Add and change the formatting of your notes
- Insert different types of content
- Use the draw tools
- Easily search your notebooks to find your notes

Note: This document frequently refers to right-click. If your set-up does not include a mouse with two buttons, Mac users can configure their single-button mouse to do a right-click by accessing the System Preferences > Mouse settings and setting the right-button to Secondary Button. Right-click can also be enabled by holding Control + click (See Figure 1).

OneNote 2016 Interface

The OneNote 2016 Interface is different from previous version of OneNote. The following illustrates the interface and where OneNote features are located.

- 1. File Tab Create new notebooks and open previously created notebooks (See Figure 2).
- 2. Quick Access Toolbar Keep shortcuts to your favorite tools (See Figure 2).
- 3. Ribbon Where you can access the tools for formatting your notebook (See Figure 2).
- 4. Contextual Tools A tab that appears by selecting relevant objects in your notebook (See Figure 2).
- 5. Search All Notebooks Allows you to search all notebooks open (See Figure 2).
- 6. Ribbon Display Options You can collapse or show the whole ribbon (See Figure 2).
- 7. Notebook List List of notebooks you currently have open (See Figure 2).
- 8. Notebook Sections List of sections in the notebook (See Figure 2).
- 9. Notebook Pages List of pages in the section of the notebook (See Figure 2).
- 10. Document This is where you type, edit, insert content in your notebook (See Figure 2).

The Ribbon

The ribbon is a panel that contains functional groupings of buttons and drop-down lists organized by tabs. The ribbon is designed to help you quickly find the commands that you need to complete a task

The File Button

The file tab takes you to a centralized location called the Microsoft Office Backstage view. This is where you can create, open a recently opened notebook, and open a notebook.

1. Click the File button.

- 2. You can do the following from the Backstage view.
 - a. New Create new notebooks (See Figure 5).
 - b. Recent Open a recently opened notebook (See Figure 5).
 - c. Open Open existing notebooks (See Figure 5).

Creating a Notebook

You can create multiple notebooks. Within a notebook you can create multiple sections and multiple pages to each section. The following shows how to create a blank notebook with sections and pages.

Notebook

Notebooks are like binders that store your information in a central location. Example notebooks can be; School, Work, Personal, etc.

1. Click the File button.

- 2. To create a new notebook, click New (See Figure 7).
- 3. Choose a notebook color (See Figure 7).
- 4. Type the Notebook Name (See Figure 7).
- 5. Choose where you would like to save the notebook (See Figure 7)
- 6. Click the Create button (See Figure 7).

7. A Blank Notebook will open.

Section

Sections are the tabs in your notebook that create categories. Example sections for a Work notebook can be; Meetings, Tasks, Agenda, etc.

Create a Section

1. In a notebook, click the Create a New Section tab.

2. Type a name for the section.

3. Press the Enter key on your keyboard to confirm the section name.

Rename a Section

- 1. Right-click on a section name (See Figure 10).
- 2. Click Rename (See Figure 10).
